Our April Member Spotlight!

Diane Bares

Member Artist of The Art Guild

Diane Lennox Bares is an award-winning artist working in oil, acrylic, and watercolor. Her current work features landscape painting through which she expresses nature's moods; an illustration of feelings evoked by the light and atmosphere in our environment to which we all respond.

Recent exhibitions of her paintings include juried shows organized by the American Artists Professional League, Pen and Brush Inc., Connecticut Academy of Fine Arts, Arts Council of the East Islip Public Library, Art League of Long Island, The Art Guild of Port Washington and the Nassau County Museum of Art in Roslyn Harbor NY where she won the "Museum Choice" award in July 2006. She also received the "Best in Show" award at the Huntington Arts Council's juried Landscape Show held in December 2006-February 2007. Solo exhibitions of the artist's work were held during February 2006 and May 2009 at the East Islip Public Library; and May 2008 and November-December 2009 at Briarcliffe College, Patchogue NY. Born in Staten Island NY, Ms. Bares holds a BA in Studio Art from Drew University where she studied painting under Lee Hall.
