2026 Call for Photographers: Get on Board

Planes, trains and automobiles are part of our everyday lives but they can also represent memories for each of us or even excite our appreciation for design. Our thoughts can also be aroused even in the absence of these modes of transportation. Train tracks, tire tracks, or the cloud streaks from a plane can create a feeling of anticipation of what is about to arrive or memories of what has departed. There are so many stories to be told. Use your creativity and artistic photographic skills to tell your story of what these modes of transportation mean to you.

High School students are invited to submit artwork for consideration for this exhibit.

CRITERIA All photographic genre are welcome: portraits, landscapes, photojournalism, and macro photography. Composite photography is accepted as long as the elements in the final image are the work of the photographer. All work must be original. Submitted work must be the artist's own. The use of Generative AI is not permitted. Images using Generative AI will not be accepted. Works previously exhibited at The Art Guild will not be considered.
