OUR HONOREES

Shelley Holtzman Co-President

With a BFA from the University of Michigan, Shelley built a career in advertising as an Art Director, group Creative Director, and the youngest Senior Vice President at J. Walter Thompson's corporate division.

Shortly after moving to Port Washington in 1995, Shelley became involved in The Art Guild (TAG). She was there when TAG became a non-profit, held its first show, found a building to call home, survived both a fire and a global pandemic. Shelley has always been an active volunteer in community graphic design projects. She also serves as Preview Co-Chair for the Port Washington Library Art Advisory Council. Shelley is an award-winning oil and watercolor painter and member of the National Association of Women Artists.

Shelley has been Co-President for the past ten years. For over two decades, she has been an integral part of what The Art Guild is today – a vibrant, visual arts community center.

Ilene Silberstein Co-President

Ilene received an AS degree from the Fashion Institute of Technology. After a career in clothing design, she left to raise a family and complete a BS degree in Visual Arts at SUNY College at Old Westbury.

Now residing in New York City, she was a resident of Port Washington for thirty-six years. Ilene served as the Development Director for the Landmark Theater, Design Director for the Port Washington High School Gambol, a member of the Port Washington Chamber of Commerce, and the HarborFest Committee. She was also honored by being appointed to The Art Advisory Council for The Town of North Hempstead. Ilene continues to travel to The Art Guild to paint and work with the board of directors, executive committee, and staff. Ilene is an award-winning painter and member of American Women Artists.

TAG continues to grow and thrive under Ilene's leadership. As Co-President since 2009, Ilene's body of work is evident in her commitment to advancing the visual arts in our community.
